

Walker C. Morris. Since the patent and patent application are in the same series with the same effective filing date, the issue seems to be resolved with cancelling Claims 45 through 64.

Finally, Claims 65 through 109 stand rejected based on nonstatutory double patenting. A Terminal Disclaimer signed by Walker C. Morris, the inventor and owner, is enclosed. It is believed that this resolves the final issue, and that the application is now in condition for allowance.

Since the number of Claims has not been increased, no additional fee is required. It is earnestly requested that Claims 65 through 109 be allowed.

Respectfully,

W. Thomas Timmons
